Lintz, September 21, N. S.

THE Emperour and Empreſs returned to this Place on Friday laſt in the Evening, very well ſatisfied with their late Diverſions of hunting, and in very good Health. There is Advice from Vienna, that the Eldeſt Archdutcheſs is ſomewhat indiſpoſed. The Baron Diede, his Britannick Majeſty's German Miniſter at this Court, went from hence on Thurſday laſt to return to Vienna. And laſt Night the Duke de Liria, Miniſter of Spain, came from Vienna hither. The Emperour will on Friday next ſet out for Steyer, the Capital Town of Stiria, about Four German Leagues from this Place, after which his Imperial Majeſty deſigns to viſit ſome other Places in that Neighbourhood, and return hither on the Tueſday following. The next Day being the Firſt of October, N. S. and the Emperour's Birth-Day, will be celebrated here with great Solemnity; and the Departure of the Court, on their return Home, in fixed to the Third of October.

Berlin, Sept. 26, N. S. The Count de Lewolde, Miniſter from the Czarina, is gone to Halle. Count Seckendorff, Miniſter from the Emperour, is gone to the Court of Denmark, and is expected back here in ſix Weeks. In November his Pruſſian Majeſty deſigns to make a Progreſs into Pomerania, there to take the Diverſion of hunting the wild Boar. 'Tis adviſed from Petersbourg, that the Czarina returned the 8th of laſt Month from a Journey which ſhe had taken to ſee the Canal of Ladoga, which is 104 Werſts in length, 70 Foot broad, and 10 deep; and that her Majeſty had ordered two Pyramids to be erected, one at the Place where that Canal enters the Lake of Ladoga, and another near Schluſſelbourg, where it enters into the River of Narva.
